

Meeting Minutes 10OCT07

Opened with call to Order and Announcements

Wenatchee river to open 23OCT

Methow river looking good this year

Working party to help Rick Sligar postponed. New time/date TBA

Fishing Tales:

Old Business:

Salmon Days booth shared with Save Lake Sammamish organization.

Limited by location and restrictions from membership drive, raffles etc.

Need to be proactive in obtaining booth permission next year.

Kokanee Endangered Species petition filed

Chapter members attending Kokanee Conservation Work Group meetings.

Progress continuing on genetic research with partial funding by T/U

Probable need for volunteers for stream surveys of Sammamish tributaries Lewis, Ebright and possibly Laughing Jacobs and Vasa.

Boy Scout Eagle projects continuing:

Christian Osgood Lewis Creek native plant restoration project scheduled

Colin Wick Kokanee fry count received nice write-ups.

Additional projects upcoming

New Business:

New Chapter Officers nominated and elected:

President: Mark Getzendaner

Vice-President: Dave Probart

Secretary: Charlie and Joanne Mallory

Treasurer: Shirley Vander Veen

Committee chairs:

Membership: Rick Sligar

Website: Bill Gerts

Salmon Days: John Wick

Scouting liaison: Charlie Mallory

Outgoing President Mark Taylor continuing as Washington Council President and head of Kokanee project.

More opportunities available for members to contribute to expanding and improving the chapter and its activities.

Skagit River Chum Salmon outing scheduled for 18NOV.

Raffle Held: includes new items and nice 4wt Fethastix rod!

Program:

Floyd Royen sp? gave a presentation and distributed materials regarding the nature and goals of the Cascade Land Conservancy. Their concerns include population growth, development, Transfer of Development Rights and possible solutions to managing growth in the Puget Sound Area. check out www.cascadeland.org

Dan from Creekside Angling in Issaquah entertained with descriptions of this year's coho fishing and techniques to use in the sound. <http://www.creeksideangling.com/home.htm>

Next general meeting scheduled for 14NOV at 7:00 PM at the Issaquah Brew Pub

Board Meeting scheduled for 28 NOV

Meeting adjourned.

Check the website for details. <http://www.tu-bi.org/>